Blade (1998) Directed by Stephen Norrington

1 Blade is a badass: a towering, intimidating man with the astonishing powers of a vampire but the soul of a pissed-off human who has a big case of self-hatred going on He barely says more than Schwarzenegger did in The Terminator, unless he's telling people how much they should shut up and leave him alone, or something like that got this Jack Ingram thing where he's just badass Ray and Hayes [Carll] wrote that song "Drunken Poet's Dream," and I don't really have a version that I like more than the other Ray was always a mentor to the songwriters I looked up to like Hayes I never got a chance to talk with Ray much outside of being on Roots & Branches
